

CAPABILITY STATEMENT

Inventing the future of Optical Lenses and Eyewear

OUR COMPANY

- Incorporated in 2019
- Located in Roselle, IL
- Minority and Women Owned, Small Business, Small Disadvantage Business
- New technology allows for faster Rx polycarbonate lenses and frames to the consumer
- Manufacture more than lenses
- Medical grade face shields
- Medical grade goggles
- Safety and Protection glasses

CONTACT

Shani Burton Johnson
CEO
sburtonjohnson@riccinooptical.com
630-385-0794 (office)
414-581-1409 (cell)

COMPANY DATA

Cage: 8S0J3

UEI: NN3CKPZ6Y5J7

NAICS Codes:

333314 - Optical Instrument and
Lens Manufacturing

423450 - Medical, Dental, and
Hospital Equipment and Supplies
Merchant Wholesalers

PAST PERFORMANCE

In 2020, we were awarded a Federal subcontract with FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) - completed manufacturing and delivery over 2.5 million FDA approved medical grade goggles and over 2.5 million FDA approved medical grade face shields under prime contractor Optical Technologies Inc.

(Contract Number: 70FA5020P00000071).

FEMA

CORE VALUES

- Bring On Demand prescription and readers to the world by lowering the cost of optical lens manufacturing and providing on-demand retail lenses
- Bring optical eyewear lens manufacture to the USA
- Building a network of 1,000 independent optical stores
- Provide employment opportunities that develop and train individuals for successful and financially rewarding careers
- We are prepared to transfer incumbent staff to our organization to fulfill contracts from our customers

OUR CAPABILITIES

CONSUMER

We service independent eyecare professionals throughout the United States and around the world with Rx lenses and frames. With over eighteen collections representing over 1,100 styles

FEDERAL INVENTORY IN IL & CA

- 10M medical grade face shields
- 10M medical grade goggles
- 4M level 2 and 3 one time use gowns
- 25M Covid Test Kits

PARTNERS

